Part XI: Praise, Person, and a Problem, Pt. 2

A PROBLEM

After John hears the praise songs of the living creatures and the elders, he is presented with a problem.

- God the Father holds a _____ in His _____ hand. What does this tell us about it?

- The description of the scroll
 - Written on _____ and on _____.

 - Sealed with _____ seals.

- It requires someone _____ to open it.

- What does the scroll contain?

- Why does John weep?

THE PERSON

When the elder speaks to John, who does he say is worthy to open the scroll? The _____.

Where does this description come from? Genesis 49:8-12

Since the Lion of Judah is who is worthy to open the scroll, is this who we see enter the throne room? Who is it?

John's description of the Lamb:

- “As though it had been _____.”

- “Seven _____.”

- “Seven _____.”

How did the Lamb conquer? What did He conquer?

What does the Lamb do in verse 7? What does this demonstrate?

The significance of the golden bowls full of incense held by the living creatures and the elders:

The new praise songs:

- The living creatures and the elders
 - Praise the Son for the

_____ He paid.

- Praise the Son for salvation brought to every _____ and _____ and _____ and _____.

- Praise the Son for the _____ of these peoples into a _____ and _____.

- Praise the Son that these peoples will _____ on the earth.

- The living creatures, the elders, and the angelic chorus
 - How many angels are involved in this song?

- Angelic understanding of “the Lamb who was slain” – I Peter 1:12

- The sevenfold tribute to Christ

- All creation

- What is John describing here?

- What has interrupted the glory and praise that rightly belongs to God?

And all the living creatures said, “_____!”

This is my Father's world.
O let me ne'er forget
That though the wrong seems oft so strong,
God is the ruler yet.

This is my Father's world:
The battle is not done;
Jesus who died
Shall be satisfied
And earth and heav'n be one.
